From Education to Careers

in Real Estate -

The educational path to success is not the same for all students. There are options for everyone. When exploring a position pay attention to the educational requirements described in the job description. Here are some examples of levels of educational attainment required for the position.

Account Executive
Accounting Manager
Appraiser
Architect*
Asset/Portfolio Manager
Attorney*
Business Development
Coordinator
Controller

Entrepreneur/Business Owner
Financial Analyst
Interior Designer
Landscape Architect
Loan Officer
Marketing Director
Pricing Analyst
Project Manager
Real Estate Manager
RE Attorney

RE Developer
Risk Manager
Space Planner
Strategic Planner
Transaction Manager
Training & Development
Urban Planner*
Workplace Designer

Appraiser

Asst. Community Manager Building/Construction Craft Professional

Community Manager

Construction Manager

Customer Service Representative

Entrepreneur/Business Owner

Electrician

Interior Designer

Landscape Architect

Maintenance Director

Maintenance Professional

Mortgage Loan Officer

Realtor/Broker

Safety Manager

Sales/Leasing Director

Virtual Design & Construction

Welder

Workplace Professional

4-Year College & Graduate

* these roles benefit from graduate education

Technical YOU ARE HERE

Career Academy Assistant Property Manager
Community Manager
Entrepreneur/Business Owner
Facility Manager
Leasing Consultant
Maintenance Coordinator
Maintenance Professional
Marketing Assistant
Plumber
Pipefitter
Sales/Leasing Representative

Virtual Design & Construction

Administrative Assistant

2-Year College

Appraiser
Community Manager
Computer Aided Designer
Construction Coordinator
Entrepreneur/Business Owner
Human Resources Coordinator
Interior Designer
IT Support

Landscape Architect
Maintenance Director
Property Manager
Realtor/Broker
Sales/Leasing Director
Space Planner
Safety Manager

CareersBuildingCommunities.org

Careers Building Communities is a platform designed for students, educators, counselors, and everyone to explore careers in the real estate industry. Visit us to learn what it takes to obtain education and employment within each sector of this vibrant industry.